

Janet H. Tucker moved to Lakeland in 1963. She is married to Jess Tucker and has four children and six grandchildren. Janet's first term on the Lakeland Downtown Development Authority Board of Directors was 1990-1995. She was re-elected in 2000, 2003, and 2006. Janet is a Downtown property owner. She owns or has owned several businesses in Lakeland over the years – A Special Touch, The Hair Shanty, Jannabelle's and Southside Package and Lounge. Janet is on the Altar Guild at St. David's Episcopal Church and is a director of the Lakeland Branch of The Needlework Guild.