

David D. Hallock, Jr. was born June 18, 1963 at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. He grew up in Los Angeles, California and Bartow, Florida. After he graduated from Bartow High School in 1981, he attended Wake Forest University where he graduated cum laude with a BS in accounting. He received his law degree from Florida State University College of Law in 1988. From Florida State University, David traveled to Brussels, Belgium where he obtained a Masters in International and Comparative Law from Vrije Universiteit Brussel.

David commenced the practice of law with the General Practice department of a large firm in Miami, Florida. After practicing 7 years in Miami, David and his wife Cynthia moved to Lakeland, Florida in 1997 to focus his practice in corporate/business and real estate transactions and commercial litigation.

Since returning to Lakeland, David has been involved in a number of community boards and activities, including the Polk Museum of Art (Board Member, Secretary and Treasurer), Leadership Lakeland Class XVII, Campfire USA, Inc., and Trinity Presbyterian Church of Lakeland. David and Cynthia have three children.